

WASHINGTON (February 17) – Congressman Spencer Bachus (AL-6) issued the following statement today after voting against a conference report with the payroll tax and other provisions.

“The House addressed this with a bill, but what we keep seeing from President Obama and Senator Harry Reid is a continued failure to rein in the out-of-control deficit.”